JELD-WEN Australia Pty Ltd or any of its related bodies corporate trading under various business names (all of which are referred to as the Buyer)

and

The entity the Buyer is purchasing products and/or services from (Seller)

1. Order

The purchase order terms and conditions set forth herein and on the purchase order to which these terms are attached, or are incorporated by reference (together with any specifications and other documents referred to herein or on the purchase order, collectively, this "Order"), are between the buyer identified in the purchase order ("Buyer"), and the seller identified in the purchase order ("Seller"). Buyer and Seller may be referred to below as a "Party" or the "Parties". This Order establishes the rights, obligations, and remedies of Buyer and Seller that apply to an Order issued by Buyer for the purchase of Seller's products and ancillary services ("Products"). This Order shall not constitute an acceptance by Buyer of any offer to sell, quotation or other proposal from Seller, even if referred to in this Order. Buyer expressly objects to and rejects any additional or different terms and conditions. These purchase order terms and conditions apply to this Order to the exclusion of all other terms and conditions. No additional or different terms or conditions, whether contained in Seller's acknowledgement, invoice, or in any other document or communication pertaining to this Order, will be binding on the Parties unless such additional or different terms are accepted in writing by an authorized representative of Buyer. This Order shall be irrevocably accepted by Seller upon the earlier of: (a) Seller's issuing any acceptance or acknowledgement of this Order; or (b) shipment of any part of the Products or other commencement of performance by Seller.

2. Price

The price for Products shall be the price set forth in this Order and shall not be subject to change. Prices are payable in the currency stated in this Order and are inclusive of all delivery charges, handling, export and/or import duties, and sales, use, value added, excise or similar taxes. If any of the foregoing taxes and fees are levied against Buyer, Seller shall reimburse Buyer for those taxes and fees. Seller warrants that the pricing for Products shall not exceed Seller's offer to any third party for similar quantities of Products (or similar products). Seller shall promptly inform Buyer of any lower pricing levels for same or comparable Products, and the Parties shall promptly make the appropriate price adjustment.

3. Payment Terms

Amounts owed for Products are due sixty (60) days end of month, unless otherwise specified and agreed upon between the Buyer and Seller in writing, after Buyer's receipt of an accurate invoice for Products, each such invoice to be issued on completion of delivery of the Products that are the subject of this Order and to contain such information as Buyer may notify in writing to Seller at any time, but including as a minimum the Order number. If Buyer in good faith disputes any invoice, Buyer may withhold payment of the disputed invoice until resolved by mutual agreement between the Parties. Invoices shall be in English.

4. Title; Delivery

Time for delivery is of the essence of this Order. For the purposes of this clause only, Buyer may include Buyer's customer. Seller shall deliver the Products on the date set forth in Buyer's Order. Buyer may reject Products delivered prior to the date set forth in the Order and Products that fail to meet the warranties in this agreement. If Seller believes that delivery of the Products will be delayed, Seller shall immediately inform Buyer of the anticipated delay, indicate the cause of delay, and use its best efforts to cure the anticipated delay. If Seller does not deliver Products in accordance with the delivery date on the Order, without prejudice to its other rights and remedies, (a) Buyer may reject the Products, and (b) Seller shall pay Buyer, at Buyer's option, either (i) the actual damages incurred by Buyer in respect of the delay, or (ii) four percent (4%) of the Order price for each day delivery is not made in accordance with the Order (up to 20% of the total price of the Order).

Seller shall adequately package all Products to prevent loss or damage during transit and shall comply with any packaging requirements provided by Buyer. Seller shall include a packing list with each delivery of Products that contains at least the following items:

- The Order number;
- Seller's part number;
- Buyer's part number;
- Quantity shipped; and
- Date of shipment.

Unless otherwise agreed, Products must be shipped DDP Seller's facility named in Buyer's Order (Incoterms 2010). Seller will bear all risk of loss, damage, or destruction to the Products, in whole or in part, occurring before delivery to Buyer at the designated delivery location. Title to Products will pass to Buyer upon delivery. Seller shall not retain any security interest in Products after the passage of title, and shall deliver the Products free of all liens and encumbrances.

Seller shall not deliver the Products the subject of this Order by instalments unless expressly agreed in writing by Buyer.

5. Inspection

The Products and Seller must meet the requirements set out in an applicable Order. Buyer may cancel this Order if Products or Seller fail to comply with the Order requirements.

Buyer may inspect Products and components of Products at any time prior to, during, and after delivery in order to assess Seller's work quality and/or compliance with this Order. Upon notice by Buyer, Seller will allow reasonable access to its facilities and assistance to Buyer, its customers, or representatives in order to inspect goods, materials and services related to the Products, including, raw materials, components, assemblies, work in process, tools and end products at all places, including sites where the Products are made, located, or the services are performed, whether at Seller's premises or elsewhere. Seller shall inspect the Products prior to delivery to ensure the Products meet all requirements of the Order and these terms and conditions.

If an inspection reveals the Products or components of Products fail or are likely to fail to comply with all requirements of the Order and these terms and conditions, Buyer may reject all or any portion of the Products. If Buyer rejects any portion of the Products, Buyer has the right, effective upon written notice to Seller, to: (a) rescind the Order in its entirety; (b) accept the Products at a reasonably reduced price; or (c) reject the Products and require replacement of the rejected Products. If Buyer requires replacement of the Products, Seller shall, at its expense, promptly replace the nonconforming Products and pay for all related expenses, including, but not limited to, transportation charges for the return of the defective goods and the delivery of replacement Products. Buyer may purchase substitute goods in lieu of the rejected Products and Seller shall indemnify Buyer on demand for any additional costs and/or losses incurred by Buyer in doing so. Buyer's, Buyer's representative's, and Buyer's customer's inspection of the Products and components of Products, or any of their approval of drawings, designs, or other documents, will not limit Seller's obligation to strictly comply with the requirements of the Order and these terms and conditions.

6. Representations and Warranties

Seller represents and warrants that:

- (a) it has full rights and authority to enter into and perform according to this Order and its performance will not violate any agreement or obligation between it and any third party;

- (c) Products will be of merchantable or satisfactory quality and fit for the purpose for which they are purchased;
- (d) Products will strictly comply with Buyer's specifications for the Products and all specifications and representations included in drawings, designs, prototypes, samples, and Seller's catalogs, brochures, and other marketing materials;
- (e) Products on delivery and for a period of five (5) years after delivery will be free from defects in material, workmanship, and design;
- (f) Products and their use by Buyer will not infringe any third party's intellectual or industrial property rights;
- (g) Products will not require export licenses for Buyer to export or re-export the Products or any technology or data provided with the Products;
- (h) Products shall meet or exceed the highest industry standards applicable for the Products and shall comply with all applicable statutory and regulatory requirements; and
- (i) Seller warrants to Buyer and Buyer's customers that all information Seller provides Buyer pursuant to this Order will be complete and accurate.

If Products fail to comply with the warranties in this clause 6, without prejudice to Buyer's other rights and remedies, Seller shall, at Buyer's option, immediately repair, replace, or refund the purchase price of the affected Products, or otherwise rectify the failure as requested by Buyer, and Seller shall be liable for all reasonably associated costs and/or losses incurred by Buyer. Buyer may purchase substitute goods and services in lieu of requiring Seller to repair or replace the affected Products, and Seller shall indemnify Buyer on demand for any additional costs and/or losses incurred by Buyer in doing so.

Buyer may initiate and implement a recall of Products, or take any other action in its reasonable discretion, if recall or such other action is required by applicable law or any regulatory authority, or in Buyer's reasonable discretion, it determines that a recall or such other action is warranted based on the fact that the Products create a potential safety hazard or breach of applicable law or regulation. Seller shall pay for all costs arising out of or related to any such recall or other action.

7. Compliance

Seller shall comply with all applicable state, national, and international laws, rules, orders, treaties, and regulations related to, without limitation, the production, manufacture, installation, sale, use, import, and export of all Products. Seller shall implement procedures to assure that all Products (including any materials provided by Seller's suppliers) are DRC Conflict Free. DRC Conflict Free means that the Products do not contain conflict minerals (Columbite-tantalite (also known as Coltan (tantalum, niobium)), Cassiterite (Tin), Wolframite (Tungsten), Gold or their derivatives) that directly or indirectly finance armed groups through mining or mineral trading in the Democratic Republic of Congo or an adjoining country. If requested by Buyer, Seller shall certify its compliance with this Section 7 by providing a sworn declaration of an officer, director, or managing agent of Seller. Buyer shall have the right, directly or through an independent agent, to engage in reasonable inspections of each manufacturing facility in which the Products are manufactured, rendered, or produced with or without notice to Seller, to ascertain Seller's compliance with this Section 7.

Seller understands that Products may be, either now or in the future, subject to one or more trade remedy proceedings (e.g., anti-dumping, countervailing duty, safeguard) in the United States or any other country, the purpose of which is to impose additional duties or other charges on the Products. If any governmental entity initiates, or if any Products are already subject to, such proceedings against the Products or duties or charges imposed on the Products, Seller agrees that, at Buyer's request, Seller will cooperate fully with Buyer and with requests for information from the applicable governmental authorities. Seller further understands and agrees that such cooperation may require it to provide confidential sales and cost information to the applicable governmental authorities so that they can calculate the amount of the duty or other charge on the goods.

Seller must manufacture the Products in conformance with all applicable consumer product safety standards, guidelines and rules issued and demonstrate compliance with all applicable foreign, state and local laws and applicable industry standards. Seller shall promptly provide Buyer with all information it requests regarding the Products in order to comply with applicable laws, rules, and regulations and/or to assess the environmental impact associated with the Products, and shall promptly notify Buyer if Seller becomes aware of any defects, hazards or similar matters that could give rise to the need for corrective action with respect to the Products under any such laws and standards.

8. Intellectual Property Ownership

No claim or right arising out of a breach of this Order can be discharged in whole or in part by a Further, the Parties agree to give any such section or paragraph deemed invalid, in whole or in part, a lawful interpretation that most closely reflects the original intention of Buyer and Seller. All provisions or obligations contained in this Order, which by their nature or effect are required or intended to be observed, kept or performed after termination or expiration of this Order shall survive and remain binding upon and for the benefit of the Parties, their successors (including without limitation successors by merger) and permitted assigns.
